

BIPOC STAHC

RESIDENT ART CALL

CRAFTSMAN

2023

ELIGIBILITY:

BIPOC ARTISTS, and/or BIPOC STAHC Member, and/or Community Supporters,
Carpentry/building/construction skills a plus

REGION: WA State

OPPORTUNITIES: Create and/design projects of interest, Up to 3 months, participate in Bi-weekly Leadership Sessions, Events and Exhibitions, Complete Survey

Start Date: Rolling Start dates

End Date: Rolling Start dates

ARTIST: At All Stages of their career

Compensation:

Up to $1000 Monthly stipend, paid supplies, free work/training/networking space

ABOUT

BIPOC STAHC is building equity for middle to low-income artists of color by providing access, exposure, and opportunities to educational professional development, portfolio expansion, future-focused topics/events to sustainable models of homeownership & business models

POSSIBLE PROJECT THEMES:

BIPOC STAHC Seeking Resident Artist curious and interested in tiny house build, off grid living, sustainable systems and infrastructures. The craftsman resident artist can choose onsite projects related to gardening, building green and/or construction related projects, or chose to design new projects based on their personal interest

<https://sustainableseattle.org/bipoc-sustainable-tiny-art-house-community/>

Supported by Sustainable Seattle, Seattle Foundation & City of Seattle, EDI, Rachel's Network, CORD, Brighton Development Group, Displaced Tenants Fund

DEADLINE: December 15, 2022

NOTIFICATION: BASED ON AVAILABILITY;
Jan 2023

APPLY:

Step 1 - complete survey

<https://forms.gle/iEGHvpiWTP3JkSB77>

Step 2 - submit visual material

<https://forms.gle/ehMdkrc7xtnXu4G88>

QUESTIONS:

bipocstahc.programs@gmail.com

info.bipocstahc@gmail.com